

PROFILE

I am an experienced complex injury associate, working in a team of 5, handling high value claims often in excess of £10 million. I operate my own caseload as well as assisting more senior fee earners from time to time. I am currently looking for a new role where I can continue to grow my career organically within a larger team.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Clyde & Co – Clinical Negligence Associate International Defendant Firm

August 2022 – Present

My role involves conducting clinical negligence claims of high, mid and low values, on behalf of defendant clients. I routinely receive instructions pre-action and at the time of issue against defendant clients, from private healthcare groups, a national medical defense organisation and NHS Resolution. My experience spans all stages of the litigation process, up to and including trial.
